

Course Outline: Security Awareness for End-Users

Certification: ICSI | CYBERAWARE Certified User

Required Course and Exam:

Course	Exam
Security Awareness for End-Users	CYBERAWARE

Duration: 1 Day

Candidate Prerequisites: None

Overview: No technical knowledge or background is required for this course which is particularly recommended for companies and organizations. All staff members who use computers, mobile devices, networks and the internet will learn how to apply good technology practices and everyday habits that will maximize online security and minimize risks.

Who Should Attend: All non-IT members of staff who use computers will benefit greatly from this course.

Module 1: The Need for Cyber-Safety

- Defining Cyber-Safety, Explaining Threats & Consequences of Inaction
- Social Engineering: The Most Feared Attack Weapon

Module 2: Physical & Logical Security for End Devices

- Physical Computer Safety in Action
- Logical Computer Safety in Action
- Mobile Devices Safety in Action
- Top Ten Cyber-Safety Actions

Module 3: Secure Internet Access

- How to browse safely
- Eliminate the risks of internet transactions
- Are you communicating safely?

- Keep your Social Networking safe
- The safe way to access Cloud Service

Exam:

The CYBERAWARE Certified User multiple-choice exam covers material from all 3 modules. The multiple choice exam duration is 1 hour. Passing Grade = 70%.